Meet your Inner Leader: how a good leadership model informs your entire life

I help executives build successful, profitable companies by developing their managers into true leaders. Because all else being equal - you have a solid product or service and reliable delivery process - it's your mid-level and first-line leaders who make the real difference.

People deserve leaders who help them grow. And better, more humane leadership is essential in today's rapidly-evolving world.

I speak on real-world topics, presenting practical tools that attendees can use to change their professional and personal lives.

For 16 years, I held leadership positions in global organizations. In 2005, I realized I could have a more meaningful impact as an external consultant. Since then, it's been my mission to help leaders, teams, and individuals become the leaders they truly are.

I teach at local colleges and universities, speak for nonprofit and professional groups, and I wrote the manual on navigating politics in the workplace: Office Politics: the elephant in the conference room.

I'd love to present for your group or organization.

I've been conducting virtual programs since 2005 - remember conference calls? - and I have a fully-equipped office video studio.

There are persistent myths about leadership that keep us from being the leaders we naturally are.

And that instant "no, not me!" reaction is one of them!

Let's kick the myths to the curb and see what it means to meet, recognize, and welcome our inner leader.

In this session, participants will

- ◆ Discover and debunk pervasive myths about leadership that keep you from believing you can be (already are!) a leader
- ◆ Learn the facts about what leadership actually is and what it actually means
- ◆ Explore the things that truly matter to you - the things your inner leader believes in, is committed to, and can guide you to exemplify
- ◆ Create action statements for your inner leader to use as prompts and guides for how you show up in the world
- ◆ Experience yourself as the leader you already truly are

"Grace is unlike any speaker that I have heard before. She was excellent at connecting change management and leadership to what we do. There is something unique and highly effective about her style - it occurs as teaching, coaching, and mentoring, not preaching ."
